

CURRICULUM VITAE

IAN YELLOWLEES, Medical Director

QUALIFICATIONS

- | | | | |
|----------|--------------------------------|------|---------------------------------------------------|
| • BA | Oxford University | 1977 | Engineering |
| • MB ChB | Bristol University | 1983 | Basic medical qualification |
| • FRCA | London | 1989 | Fellow, Royal College of Anaesthetists |
| • MPhil | Exeter University | 1990 | Engineering |
| • MICR | Institute of Clinical Research | 2007 | Member of the Institute of Clinical Research |
| • FPPMRC | Faculty of Pain Medicine | 2007 | Foundation Fellow of the Faculty of Pain Medicine |

KEY EXPERIENCE – Outwith the NHS

- Compiled draft information portfolio for surgical governance for Scottish health boards; adopted by NHS Quality Improvement Scotland.
- Medical input to the analysis of the British Pain Society’s National Dataset (153,000 records) and interpretation of the results.
- Medical input to development of new approaches to case mix adjustment analysis for hip fracture outcomes and interpretation/identification of outliers.
- Developed clinical adverse events groups stratified by risk for Scottish Audit of Surgical Mortality.
- Developed pilot return to work scheme for occupational health services.
- Clinical input to project for radical restructuring of payment schemes for NHS pharmacists in Scotland. Commissioned by Scottish Executive.
- Specified design and supervised development of data system for audit of SIGN 44 guideline in clinical practice.

KEY EXPERIENCE – as NHS Consultant

- Consultant Anaesthetist at Borders General Hospital with responsibilities in most surgical specialities and intensive care; special responsibility for pain management.
- Established a new service for the management of acute and chronic back pain in the Borders, which was nationally recognised as an example for successful implementation of national guidelines (Clinical Standards Advisory Group).
- Developed patient administration system for multidisciplinary clinics.
- Established new multidisciplinary pain management service at the Borders General Hospital.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

2009 - Present	Director, The Pain Consultancy
2002 - Present	Medical Director, Quantics Consulting Limited
1992 - 2002	Consultant Anaesthetist, Borders General Hospital
1990 - 1992	Senior Registrar, Newcastle upon Tyne Rotational Training Scheme
1983 - 1984	Lecturer in computing and Electronics, Exeter University

LECTURES

- Advocates Personal Injury Law Group
- Association of Personal Injury Lawyers
- Pain Society National Conference
- National Pain Management Conference
- North British Pain Association
- British Pain Society ethics special interest group
- Hardwick Buildings (Lincoln's Inn) and 9 Gough Square
- Personal Injury Bar Association Annual Conference

RESEARCH

- Needs assessment for specialist cancer pain services in the Borders
- Use of oral steroids for acute sciatic pain.
- Participant in an international multicentre trial of Pre-Gabalin for post herpetic neuralgia.